SATIR CENTRE (SINGAPORE) presents

LEVEL 2 IN SATIR TRANSFORMATIONAL SYSTEMIC THERAPY

Working with Families (L233)

11 September 2020 – 31 January 2021

Leading to the Specialist Diploma conferred by the Satir Institute of the Pacific (Canada) and the Satir Centre (Singapore).

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

This program is for counselors and therapists who have completed minimum, the Foundational Certificate in Satir Transformational Systemic Therapy training programme offered by the Satir Centre (Singapore) or an equivalent programme approved by Kathlyne Maki-Banmen, Director of Training, Satir Institute of the Pacific, and who are presently working with clients in a counselling or helping role/position.

The focus of the programme is to improve participants competence, congruence and confidence in doing transformational, experiential, systemic change therapy. The course leader will utilize lectorettes, small group discussions, structured exercises, demonstrations, experiential learning and skill practice sessions to assist participants to move their therapy into a positively directional, change focused, experiential process.

The emphasis will be on bringing about transformational change in individual therapy, couples therapy and family therapy. This module will focus on working with families in therapy.

Participants will complete a practicum and work in trios to practice different aspects of the programme. Participants will also use their own process of personal growth as the arena for their learning.

This programme will include voluntary therapeutic demonstrations with programme participants.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Counselors, social workers and therapists who have completed minimum, the Foundational Certificate in Satir Transformational Systemic Therapy training programme offered by the Satir Centre (Singapore) or an equivalent programme approved by Jennifer Nagel, Director of Training, Satir Institute of the Pacific, and who are presently working with clients in a counselling or helping role/position.

CLOSING DATE: 31 July 2020

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

This Program will help Counsellors, Social Workers and Therapists:

1. Use their Self in a competent, confident, congruent and creative way throughout the Satir therapeutic process.
2. Make therapy experiential throughout each aspect of the therapeutic process.
3. Make therapy positively directional throughout each aspect of the therapeutic process.
4. Make therapy change focused throughout each aspect of the therapeutic process.
5. Make the therapy process systemic, working on changing the intrapsychic within the context of interactive relationships and changing the interactive from the intrapsychic changes.
6. Tap clients' Life Energy as the stimulus to growth and transformation.
7. Help clients access their subconscious processes and bring them into awareness.
8. Reframe symptoms into solutions and find the positive resources in symptoms.
9. Help clients access, accept and utilize their internal strengths and resources.
10. Help clients to increase their ability to own their internal processes and increase their choice-making possibilities.
11. Collaboratively work with clients to set positively directional therapeutic goals in both intrapsychic and interactive systems.
12. Facilitate bringing about transformational change and anchoring and integrating the changes.
13. Help families connect in an accepting way.
14. Help families resolve differences.
15. Appreciate their own personal and professional growth process.
